Raiders Beat Staunton River 6-2

The Appomattox Raiders evened their baseball record last Monday as they beat the Staunton River team 6-2 in a game played at Staunton River. Appomattox made its record 1-1 in the Seminole District.

The Raiders did not waste any time pouring on the runs as they got off to a 3-0 lead in the first inning, scored again in the second to make it 3-0 and added two more in the fourth for a 5-0 lead before the Golden Eagles scored in the fifth. Both teams added another run in the seventh.

Appomattox banged out eight hits and did not make an error in backing Steve Almond, the winning pitcher. Almond struck out 11 and walked five as he went the distance for the Raiders. Bob Zimmerman took the loss for Staunton River. They got five hits and made one error.

4-H Dog Show

The 4-H Clubs of Appomattox County will hold their first annual 4-H Dog Show at 2 p.m. Sunday afternoon, May 16th, in the Kings Supermarket parking lot in Appomattox.

The Dog Show will be sponsored by Lawson Ford Co., Inc. and trophies and ribbons will be given in each class.

There will be 10 classes in all. Six of the classes will be divided according to type; therefore, it is not necessary to have a registered dog to be eligible to enter the show. There will be a Sporting Type Dog Class in which all types and breeds of bird dogs will be shown; a Hound Type Dog Class in which all types of hounds can be entered; a Working Type Dog Class in which dogs such as guard dogs, cattle dogs, etc., can be entered; a Terrier Type Dog Class in which all breeds and types of Terriers can be accepted; a Toy Type Dog Class in which all small dogs can be entered such as Chihuahuas, Pekingese, etc. and a Non-Sporting Dog Class for dogs which are bred and used for no other purpose except pets or companions. In addition to the six type classes, there will also be three classes in which all breeds and types of dogs may enter. The first is a Costume Class in which the dog with the cutest and most original costume will capture the trophy. The second is the Best Groomed Class in which the dog that is in the best condition as far as coat and general appearance will take top honors and the third is the Showmanship Class in which the 4-H'er who does the best job of exhibiting his or her dog to the best advantage of the dog will take the trophy. The winners from each of the nine previously mentioned classes will all come together to show for top honors in the form of a large trophy for Best Dog in Show. In addition to a trophy in each class, there will be first through fifth place ribbons given in each class.

The only requirements to enter the show are that you be a 4-H member between the ages of 9 and 19 and an entry fee of 25 cents per class.

Food and drinks will be on sale and will be handled by the Lucky Clover Community 4-H Club of Pamplin.

Anyone interested in further information about the 4-H Dog Show can contact G. L. James or Jesse R. Ford at the Extension Office in Appomattox.
